

Join Us For The 11th Annual South Dakota Leopold Conservation Award Tour

Blair Brothers Angus Ranch

September 29th, 2020

Blair Brothers Angus Ranch - Belle Fourche, SD

Schedule :

9:30-10:00 am	Registration, Coffee & Rolls
10:00-10:30 am	Award Presentation
10:30-11:30 am	Dave Ollila: Ranching in Northwest South Dakota: Then & Now
11:30-12:30 am	Chuck Wagon Lunch
12:30-1:15 pm	Rainfall Simulator
1:30 -3:30 pm	Ranch Tour
3:45 pm	SDSU Ice Cream
4:00 pm	Tour Ends

Directions :

From HWY 212 and 85 four-way stop in Belle

Fourche: Go north on HWY 85 for 22.3 miles to Kinghorn Ranch road turn North; follow signs to location.

From Buffalo: Go 48.5 miles south of Buffalo on HWY 85 to Kinghorn Ranch road and turn North, follow signs.

From HWY 79: Go west on SD HWY 168 (HWY 79 and 85 cut across road) to HWY 85, go south for 8.6 miles to Kinghorn Ranch Road, turn North and follow signs.

Add'l directions: Turn off is at MM 79 the ranch road is straight north off of 85 although 85 runs slightly North east through there.

RSVP by Friday, September 25 to Judge at

605-280-0127 or jljessop@kennebectelephone.com

The Leopold Conservation Award Program in South Dakota made possible thanks to the generous support of South Dakota Cattlemen's Association, South Dakota Grassland Coalition, First Dakota National Bank, South Dakota Department of Agriculture, South Dakota Farm Bureau Federation, South Dakota Game, Fish & Parks, SDSU College of Agriculture, Food & Environmental Sciences, SD DENR Discovery Center, USDA's Natural Resources Conservation Service, Audubon Dakota, Bad River Ranches, Belle Fourche River Watershed Partnership, Daybreak Ranch, Ducks Unlimited, McDonald's, Millborn Seeds, North Central SARE-Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education, Professional Alliance, South Dakota's Conservation Districts, South Dakota Soil Health Coalition, The Nature Conservancy, South Dakota Pheasants Forever, Todd Mortenson Family, U.S. Fish, Wildlife-Partners for Fish and Wildlife, Wagner Land & Livestock, and Kopriva Angus LLC of Raymond, South Dakota.