West River/Wall REGISTRATION FROM
South Dakota Grazing School

Grazing School participants will benefit from hands-on experience in the field.

Each year, the South Dakota Grassland Coalition hosts the Wall/West River Grazing School in Wall/Quinn, SD area during June. Contact us at (605) 280-0127 or visit SDGrass.org for more information.

The Grazing School is designed by producers for producers or anyone that has an interest in learning how to best manage grasslands to benefit livestock.

The agenda features presenters from state and federal agencies, and universities. Area producers share their expertise about various topics related to grazing techniques and grassland management. Participants will hear presentations in the classroom and gain experience with hands-on activities in the field.

Space is limited. Early registration is encouraged to participate.

The Grazing School is 2 ½ days of working with grass allocation and livestock as well as the agenda items below:

- Adaptive Management
- Seasons for Grazing Nutrition
- Managing Diversity on Rangelands
- Grazer’s Math
- Practical Guide to Rangeland Inventory
- Plant Species Identification
- Clip Like a Cow
- Manage for Diversity
- Grazing Strategies & Concerns at Home
- Vision & Goals
- Grazing for Healthier Soil
- Planning for a Forage Shortage
- Planning Grazing Strategies
- Fencing and Watering Systems
- Holistic Management
- Implementing Grazing Practices
- See specific dates and www.SDGrass.org.

The vision for the South Dakota Grazing School is:
To offer grazing land managers of South Dakota useful tools to maintain healthy and diverse ecosystems while optimizing available natural resources.
