Elaine Froese (pronounced 'phrase'), CSP is a certified professional speaker, certified coach, and author. She's a go-to expert for farm and ranch families who want better communication and conflict resolution to secure a successful transition.

As a farmer and mother to the successor of their farm, she understands the culture of agriculture intimately.

Her expertise is to discuss what she calls the Undiscussabull™ – the bull in the middle of the farm family that no one wants to talk about.

She is an award-winning author who's written 5 books over the past 25 years.

These workshops possible through coordination/cooperation between Nebraska Grazing Lands Coalition, South Dakota Grassland Coalition & SD Farm Bureau
