

www.ranchersworkshop.com

Join us for the 44th Annual Ranchers Workshop

Wednesday, January 25, 2023

Community Events Center

White River, SD

9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. (CST)

(Registration begins at 9:00 a.m. Speakers start at 10:00 a.m.)

Topics & Presenters

“Eastern Red Cedar– Overcoming Objections of Controlled Burning”

Sean Kelly

SDSU Extension Range Management Field Specialist and Liaison Officer for the Mid-Missouri River Prescribed Burn Association

“Farm/Ranch Transition and Estate Planning”

Dustin Christensen

Agent for New York Life Insurance Company

“How To Survive Farm Record Keeping”

Lori Tonak

SD Center for Farm/Ranch Management, Mitchell Technical College

“Cold Stress and Winter Event Management in Beef Cattle”

Dr. Jessica (Ludvik) Fridley, DVM

Owner of Weathered Ridge Veterinary Clinic, LLC in Murdo, SD

EXPO BOOTHS

Vendor and Informational booths will be available to view all day.

For more information contact:

Lealand Schoon- (605) 488-9762

Ashley Diamond-(605) 321-2240

Jewell Bork -(605) 530-3713

Darby Johns- (605) 259-3252 ext. 3

Persons requiring accommodations should call one of the above phone numbers one week before the event.

Coordinated by

SDSU Extension

Rosebud Sioux Tribal Ranch

Natural Resources Conservation Service

Mellette-Todd County Farm Service Agency

Mellette & Todd County Conservation Districts

South Central Resource Conservation & Development Council

USDA is an Equal Opportunity Provider, Employer, and Lender

